COUNTRY MUSIC MUSEUM

Mar. 14 — $190 pp

Let's pay a visit to the house that holds all the music! The Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum, located in downtown Nashville, has been called the "Smithsonian of country music," celebrated for its broad cultural impact, educational mission, and unrivaled collection of historically important artifacts related to country music. In addition to the museum admission, we will enjoy lunch and a tour of Historic RCA Studio B. You won't want to miss this trip!

Your price includes motor coach transportation, tour, lunch, and all tips & gratuities.
